Indianapolis Barred by Rain from Shutting Out the Flour City Team.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MINNEAPOLIS, April 26. - The Hoosier ball-players are in tough luck. While they were in the wicked city near here, where abideth the saints, both the latter and the weather (conspired to give them a hostile greeting. It was with no feeling of regret, then, that Manager Harrington and his men turned their faces towards the laughing Minnehaha. The Flour City proved to be no more gracious to her visitors than her rival, St. Paul, for no sooner had the Hoosiers appeared in Minneapolis than the flood-gates of the sky opened. To-day's scheduled game was, therefore, postponed. Dispatches from Omaha and St. Paul say that rain also prevented games there.

Toledo, 7; Kansas City, 2.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KANSAS CITY, April 26 .- Hughey and Clark pitched splendid games to day, but the Toledo boys gave their man good support, while the Blues put up a most miserable fielding game. Outside of this bad work, which lost the game for the home

CITY LEAGUE GOES TO PIECES. Players and Park-Owners Fail to Agree on a Division of the Receipts. The City Base-ball League is a thing of the past. It died last night and Sim Coy was its Brutus. There were six clubs in the league, as follows: Progress, Lieber Nationals, Klee & Colemans, Danburys, Easterns and Booths. These clubs played every Sunday on three grounds-at Sim Coy's place, Monroe's Park and Brighton Beach. They drew large crowds from the first of the season, and as the sun grew warmer and April weather advanced the crowds increased. The admission price was only 10 cents, and yet the gross receipts were in mid-season often $100 and over. Of this gross the owners of the parks kept 50 per cent., the other 50 per cent. going to the clubs playing, at the rate of 80 per cent. to the winning and 20 per cent. to the losing nine. This the league captains objected to, saying they wanted 75 per cent. of the gross or they wouldn't play. Monday night this proposition was submitted to the directors of the league, Sim Coy, James Monroe and Joe Wambold, the owners of Coy's, Monroe's and the Brighton Beach parks, respectively, and they promised to give the club managers an answer last night. Accordingly a large number of the players met in the sheriff's office, last night, to see what concessions the park owners would make.

got it.
"Very well, you needn't then. We can get other clubs," defiantly answered Mr.

Coy represented the latter, and he stated

most emphatically that they would not grant the extra 25 per cent, of the gross.

Then Mr. St. Clair, speaking for the clubs, said the clubs would not play unless they

The club managers, in speaking of it afterwards, said: "Those people think they can make monkeys out of us every Sunday by getting us out there to play for nothing. They make enough out of the liquor they sell every Sunday to more than allow them to grant us 75 per cent. If no ball there would be no crowd, and if there is no crowd they will sell no beer. The only good amateurs in town belong to this league and they can't get any other men who can play decent ball. The receipts at Monroe's Park a week ago last Sunday only gave us 30 cents each, after Monroe had taken his share. At Brighton Beach, last Sunday, they were $70.30, and at Coy's

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Cincinnati Wins Three Straight Games from St. Louis, the Last One by 10 to 6.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CINCINNATI, April 26 .- The Reds made it a three straight from the St. Louis Browns this afternoon, but it was only after a desperate ten-inning struggle. The Reds at one time had a lead of six runs, but in the eighth Bob Caruthers tied the score by making a home run. Four singles and a double enabled the local team to pull out in the tenth. Attendance, 2,839. Score: Cincinnati.....0 0 6 0 0 0 0 0 0 4-10 St. Louis...... 0 0 4 0 1 0 0 0 1 0-6 Hits-Cincinnati, 14; St. Louis, 9. Umpire-Emslie. Brooklyn, 12; Baltimore, 10.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal, BROOKLYN, April 26.-Brooklyn defeated Baltimore to-day by hitting the ball hard at opportune times. The most penetrating kind of a wind swept over the grounds, and it was a cold day for the 1,773 spectators. In stealing second base in the first inning Tom Burns sprained his ankle badly. and Darby O'Brien, who took his place, did the best stick-work of the game, getting a triple, a double and two singles out of four times at the bat. Score:

Knell went to pieces in the third and fourth innings, after which he was replaced by Killen, who did not permit the visitors to make a hit. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CLEVELAND, O., April 26,-Inability to hit Davies was the prime cause of Chicago's defeat to-day. Tebeau played a great fielding game, and Cooney made some good pick-ups. The umpire made two bad errors of judgment against Cleveland, and there was considerable excitement incidental to the game. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PITTSBURG. April 26.-Inability to hit Jones's delivery explains the whitewash received by Pittsburg at the hands of Louisville to-day. Timely hitting on the part of the "Colonels," aided by several bad plays by the home team, had much to do with the result. It was a pitcher's contest up until the fifth inning, when Baldwin was touched up for several nice hits, which eventually netted runs and gave the "Colonels" a comfortable lead. Score:

TURF EVENTS.

Gray Goose Carries Off the Honors of the Day at the Memphis Track, Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 26.-The track was fast to-day. The attendance was fair, many being drawn by the third race, which was a special, and when they arrived they found the race declared off. The best event of the day was the fifth race, in which Gray Goose took the lead from the start and held it by half a length all around the track, with Powers, Pat Copley and Enterprise fighting for the places. The last three horses were so evenly bunched that no one was certain who were placed until the bulletin was up.

Friendless State of a Lonely Woman Who Could Speak Russian Only. frecial to the Indianapolis Journa'.

VINCENNES, April 26.-A Russian woman, with a peddler's pack on her back, was found in a fence corner near the residence of Mr. James Ferguson, eight miles north of here. She had just given birth to a baby when discovered by Mr. Ferguson who, in the kindness of his heart, took the woman to his home and kindly cared for her and the child. The woman, who could speak no English, insisted on walking to this city with her babe in her arms. Mr. Ferguson brought her to town in a carriage and, with the assistance of the police, succeeded in finding her husband.

GIMNASTIC ENTERTAINMENT.

Another Creditable Exhibition by the Y. M. C. A. Class-Musical Programme.

A very creditable gymnastic entertainment was given at the Y. M. C. A. last night by the class of young amateurs. There was club swinging, and pole vaulting, and wire walking, and wand exercises, and a dozen other novel and skillful feats of gymnastic craft, all very pleasing to the eye and easy on the nerves. Mr. F. B. Fowler sang Franz Abt's "When the Night in Dusky Shadows," and Master Dwight Day told all about "Christmas Chimes." The Gresham Zouaves went through their silent manual, minus the "hey bobby, hip bobby," and then Mrs. S. L. Morrison sang "Sleep, My Child," a pretty lullaby, after which Miss May Bryson played Leybach's "Fifth Nocturne, Op. 52," with superior execution. Other musical contributors were Mr. Arthur Mc-Corkle and Master Ray Wilson.

ANNIVERSARY OF ODD-FELLOWSHIP.

Capital Canton, of This City, and Others, Celebrate It at Brazil. Yesterday Capital Canton, Patriarchs Militant, of this city, went to Brazil to celebrate at that place, in connection with cantons from Terre Haute, Danville, Sullivan and Worthington, and other Odd-fellows, the seventy-third anniversary of Odd-fellowship. It was a great celebration, about four thousand persons witnessing the interesting ceremonies. Excursions were run on all the roads leading into Brazil. The procession was one of imposing magnitude, and the exercises took place at the opera-house. The exhibition drill given by the canton from this city was an exceedingly interesting feature, the military precision of these Patriarchs Militant receiving high praise from all who
